Height, Weight & Health Advice

1. Adventure World's rides and attractions have height, weight, jewellery, accessories and clothing restrictions, please refer to www.adventureworld.net.au prior to visiting, Admissions signage at the park and additional signage at each ride for further information
2. All Adventure World attractions operating policies are created in support of Australian Standard 3533.2. For this reason, loose items are strictly prohibited on many park attractions. Specifically, AND in addition to other loose items and articles of clothing, no jewellery, watches, goggles, sun glasses, prescription glasses, belts, or denim can be worn on any slide. Lockers are available for purchase in park to store loose items. Any items concealed by patrons in breach of the park's operating policies are done so at the sole risk of the patron and without any liability toward Adventure World.

3. Prior to using an attraction, it is the responsibility of the patron to ensure they are not in breach of operating policy. This can be done by reading signage located at each attraction, on Adventure World's website or verbally inside Adventure World with a member of the team who is equipped to provide the correct information.
4. Weight Requirements: Riders are responsible for ensuring their own compliance with the maximum weight requirements as required on each ride. These requirements are safety and comfort related.
5. Further specific requirements may be displayed throughout the Park, and must be obeyed at all times.

Responsibility

1. There are inherent risks in the participation in or riding of a theme park device. By participation, Guests accept the inherent risks of which a prudent person is or should be aware. Guests should also act in a prudent manner at all times given these inherent risks.
2. Patrons have a duty to act with good judgement and consideration, both for themselves and others, and to refrain from behaviour or acts which could affect their safety, the safety of other patrons, or the safety of the device itself
3. Adults are responsible for minors under their supervision.
4. The Keep Watch guidelines published by Royal Life Saving Australia require:
 - a) Children under the age of 10 must be under the active supervision of a person aged 16 years or older, and children under the age of 12 must be in the care of a person aged 16 years or older.
 - b) For 0-5 year olds and non-swimmers, a parent or guardian needs to be in the water at all times and within arms' reach of the child. It is best if you are engaging with your child i.e. playing with them, talking to them.
 - c) Constant active supervision is required for children aged 6-10 years old. Parents and carers must be prepared to enter the water with this age group.
 - d) For 11-14 year olds it is recommended that parents regularly check on their child by physically going to where they are in or around the water.
5. Guests must not participate in or on any theme park ride or device when under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
6. Guests must obey all written and verbal instructions and warnings, given by Adventure World staff including the operators of any ride or device, without objection.
7. Guests must use, as instructed, all safety equipment provided when participating in any ride or device.
8. Guests are responsible for their own personal property, lockers are available for hire.
9. Adventure World takes all reasonable steps to provide Guests with a safe and enjoyable theme park. Adventure World will only be liable in respect of any loss of life, personal injury or damage to property where Adventure World has been found to be negligent.
